

THIS PLACE MATTERS

Southwest Seattle Historical Society invites you to...
EXPERIENCE HISTORY IN THE MAKING

Please join us for a community rally to save the Alki Homestead / Fir Lodge!

- WHO: State Senator Joe McDermott, County Executive Dow Constantine, City Council member Tom Rasmussen, and former Mayor Greg Nickels, together with the Southwest Seattle Historical Society, Historic Seattle, the Washington Trust for Historic Preservation, and 4Culture
- WHAT: A lively group photo shoot and rally, in front of this beloved City of Seattle landmark
- WHEN: Sunday, the Fourth of July, 2010
1:30 p.m.
Arrive early - holiday parking at Alki may be challenging
- WHERE: On the street in front of the Alki Homestead Restaurant
2717 61st Avenue SW
Alki Beach, Seattle
One-half block in from the Statue of Liberty

For more information contact:
Southwest Seattle Historical Society/Log House Museum, (206) 938-5293
loghousemuseum@comcast.net or www.loghousemuseum.info

Alternative contact: Clay Eals, 206-484-8008 or ceals@comcast.net

WASHINGTON
TRUST FOR HISTORIC PRESERVATION

CULTURE