PROJECT NAME

“Filipinos in Chinatown ID” project, formally known as Filipino American Cultural Asset Mapping (FACAM) in the Chinatown-International District (CID) in Seattle Washington.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the “Filipinos in Chinatown ID” project is to identify Filipino historic establishments and add to the list of Filipino cultural assets compiled by Dr. Fred Cordova, Filipino American National Historical Society (FANHS) Co-founder and Archivist. The list is noted on the kiosk “Honoring Filipinos in Chinatown International District from 1910 to 2010” which is located on the SW corner of 6th and King.

RATIONALE

The Project helps preserve the CID neighborhood’s diverse history and acknowledges the Filipino contributions towards making the Chinatown-International District the rich, multilayered, culturally authentic place it has been for over 100 years. This project also supports the continued community building, arts and cultural work, and business development and retention to sustain and revitalize the CID.

For the project researchers, this is a restorative justice project to honor our forbearers.

This project was undertaken with Auntie Dorothy's guidance to look beyond the cultural assets and see the human stories of Filipinos in Seattle's CID.

Salamat po to Uncle Fred, also known as Dr. Fred Cordova, FANHS Archivist for providing the cultural asset inventory found on the Filipino Kiosk on 6th & King Street in the CID.

Last but not least, salamat po to the Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience and Cassie Chinn for her guidance, technical assistance and access to their collection and for funding from the Seattle Office of Economic Development Only in Seattle grant and the Mellon Foundation.

FILIPINOS CULTURAL ASSET MAPPING IN CID

CID Boundaries:

The CID is a historical district with the following boundaries:

- Yesler Street to the north
- 4th Avenue South to the west
- Rainier Avenue to the east
- Dearborn/Charles Street to the south

Filipino Cultural Asset Baseline:

Through the years, Uncle Fred as FANHS Archivist would add to his list of Filipino establishments in the CID. The addresses and names of the establishments are on the Kiosk at 6th and King "Honoring the Contributions of Filipinos in Chinatown International District from 1910 to 2010." (Batayola subsequently added 1999 Carlos Bulosan Memorial and the 2004 Domingo Viernes Apartments to the list.)

Uncle Fred's list had 61 Filipino establishments in the CID and 6 in nearby Pioneer Square. The Filipino establishments in the CID included:

- 8 Affinity Groups with 3 (Caballeros Dimasalang, Legionarios Del Trabajo and Regional Philippine Grand Lodge of America) having multiple sub-groups.
- 2 Alaska Labor Contracting Companies
- 12 Barber Shops
- 11 Commercial Businesses, which include a clothing store and 2 photography studios, one woman owned (Aquilina Nator) with multiple businesses.
- 11 Cafes and Restaurants
- 3 Grocery Stores
- 1 Gym
- 2 Hotels
- 1 Newspaper
- 1 Card Room
- 4 Social Clubs, which included one that moved 4 times within the CID.
- 3 Union Offices
- 2 Other Establishments, which are not clear if one is a hotel or café and the other a newspaper or affinity group.

See pages 6, 7 and 8 for the list of baseline Filipino cultural assets that include names and addresses by type of establishments. <https://1drv.ms/x/s!AsxiHr7uaVr-qGH8ZEK8YOYpRU46?e=sNxofG>

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY TO LOCATE FILIPINO ESTABLISHMENTS:

Initially, inquiries were made to the City of Seattle business licensing office. Business information is not filed by ethnicity e.g. Filipino. Hence, the research team turned to Auntie Dorothy for access and guidance to the FANHS Archives and Collections.

The Research Interns reviewed the Wing Luke Museum database with oral history excerpts, which was not extensive. They then painstakingly combed through sampling of 1930 to 1975 Filipino Forum and Bayanihan Tribune hard copy newspapers from the FANHS Collection to harvest the name, address and at times, the owner or proprietor of the establishment.

The Ads for the Filipino establishments were used as proof positive that the Filipino establishments existed in the CID. Further research is necessary to determine when the establishments opened and when they closed their doors. (See samples on page10.)

Data Sets:

Sources were reviewed to identify Filipino establishments in the CID with the following results:

- Wing Luke Museum database and oral history list:
<https://1drv.ms/x/s!AsxiHr7uaVr-qF1kFWqW6molCNEH?e=pD5pOM>
- Filipino establishments posted newspaper ads:
 - Filipino Forum Newspaper 1951 to 1958
<https://1drv.ms/x/s!AsxiHr7uaVr-qF1kFWqW6molCNEH?e=Sn6KOy>
 - Filipino Forum Newspaper 1960 to 1969
<https://1drv.ms/x/s!AsxiHr7uaVr-qF7Dys1smq8sAAKh?e=emWpnX>
 - Filipino Forum Newspaper 1970 & Bayani Tribune 1975
<https://1drv.ms/x/s!AsxiHr7uaVr-qF8xUZePAAB5ugrw?e=TVEj11>

Research Assistant Sanchez observed that the March 1970 Bayani Tribune issue did not contain any advertising for businesses but rather focused on church and social happenings.

The data was compared to Uncle Fred’s baseline cultural asset data to remove duplications. 32 additional Filipino establishments were identified in the CID which included:

- 2 Affinity Groups
- 1 Bakery
- 2 Barbershops
- 8 Businesses
- 8 Cafes/Tavern
- 4 Grocery Stores
- 1 Housing Hotel
- 1 Newspaper
- 3 Recreation Pool and Card Rooms
- 2 Social Clubs

See below and page 9 for a list of the additional Filipino cultural assets that include names and addresses by type of establishments. <https://1drv.ms/u/s!AsxiHr7uaVr-qGRQTheQYOoHydAy?e=4fdnE2>
